Covers Content	The instructional content is explained thoroughly and teaches the concept or content well. Demonstrates extreme mastery of the content and makes it easy to learn.	The instructional content is there, but there are some gaps... seems to demonstrate good mastery of the concept or content, but a few errors or gaps noted.	There’s a little instructional content, but it’s hard to find. Doesn’t demonstrate much mastery of the topic.	No instructional content in these lyrics.
Information mixed with fun	The song and visuals — combined with extra text and details in the background — creates a great instructional tool. The finished product was definitely fun AND educational.	The song and visuals — combined with extra text and details in the background — are interesting, and overall was a good presentation.	The song and visuals were solid, but either the video didn’t have great visuals combined with extra information, or it fell flat because of the poor lyrics.	The video and/or slides contained at least one of the following errors: 1. Too short 2. Music and lyrics didn’t match. 3. Little educational content in it.
Video Quality	The video was awesome — it contained lots of visuals that changed frequently while the song/rap was performed; it had great transitions between scenes; and it contained a title at the beginning.	The video was great! But it either lacked transitions between images or it had too few, so that the video got a little boring in spots.	The video was good. It lacked transitions between images and it had too few images/slides in general, so the video got a little boring in several spots.	The finished product was very low on appropriate images and/or audio quality — in the sense that the lyrics matched the instructional content.
